Project Coordinator Overview

Who we are

At Global Eco Travel, LLC, we specialize in connecting students with economically and environmentally sustainable adventure trips in Costa Rica. The trips we offer are rewarding and offer opportunities for personal growth to our customers, while maintaining a carbon-neutral and socially conscious presence in Costa Rica. We are looking to hire highly motivated, entrepreneurial, and environmentally-minded students to help us promote sustainability and advance the Geco mission on campus.

What we're looking for

1. Entrepreneurial and environmentally minded students interested in travel and sustainability
2. Team players with solid organizational abilities as well as an outgoing, easily approachable personality
3. Self starters who enjoy having the flexibility to create their own work style
4. A flexible schedule for an appropriate time commitment to the business

What you'll be doing

1. Forming relationships with individuals and campus organizations built around travel and sustainability
2. Developing marketing materials that reflect the creative and innovative nature of the business
3. Working with customers both before and after departure to ensure that they have an enjoyable experience

What's in it for you

1. GREAT experience working on a start-up business
2. Expand your leadership role on campus
3. Friendly team members who love what they're doing
4. The flexibility to create your own niche within a business
